Report description:

Following a strong decline in retail volume sales of edible oils in the Czech Republic in 2023, informed by stockpiling in the previous year, demand was on the rise in 2024. The demand for some edible oils was supported by price decreases in the first half of the year amid a downward change in VAT (value-added tax) from 15% to 12%. This change in VAT was reflected in retail selling prices, as large retailers delivered on a promise to reflect the new VAT in consumer prices. However, the average r...
