Report description:

Designer apparel and footwear (ready-to-wear) continues to record steady growth in current value terms in 2024, with designer apparel performing slightly better than designer footwear. Hugo Boss continues to be the leading player on the South African market, followed by Donna Karan, and Gucci. The growing number of higher-net-worth individuals, the increasing influence of social media, and the rising access to global trends are among the main growth drivers for designer apparel and footwear (rea...
