Report description:

Processed fruits and vegetables is seeing mixed results in Italy in 2024. While many options in the category continue to face competition from fresh food, certain products remain popular, such as shelf stable beans. Indeed, legumes are increasingly appreciated by Italian consumers for their protein content, which makes them an excellent substitute for animal protein. Considered a superfood by many, legumes are low in fat and high in antioxidants, fibre, B vitamins, and minerals such as iron, cal...
