Report description:

The stabilisation of prices has helped balance the increase in out-of-home dining occasions that followed the full reopening of the economy. As a result, the sauces, dips, and condiments category has experienced a flat performance in volume terms in 2024. With the return of daily routines such as office work and school attendance, consumers are cooking at home less frequently than in previous years, leading to reduced demand for cooking ingredients. This shift in behaviour has tempered growth in...
