Report description:

In Australia, glass bottles continued to dominate total packaging volumes of alcoholic drinks in retail in 2023, particularly in wine and spirits. This dominance is rooted in the premium image that glass conveys, which is a crucial factor in a market in which quality and prestige are highly valued by consumers. Australia's wine industry, one of the largest globally, heavily relies on glass bottles, not just for their superior ability to preserve the taste and quality of the wine, but also for th...
