Report description:

In 2024, sauces, dips and condiments in Slovenia is expected to register moderate current value growth and muted volume growth. Areas of growth include products with ethnic flavours and this is expected to contribute for healthy growth for herbs and spices, as outlined below. This is also leading to an expanding range of dips with ethnic flavours. However, consumers continue to be price sensitive after several years of rising prices, and this is resulting in growth for private label, as well as...
