Report description:

Staple foods is expected to see continued, but more modest, current value growth in Ireland in 2024. In 2023, overall, staple foods recorded marginal gains despite strong inflationary pressures. The heightened cost of key raw materials such as wheat, milk, edible oils, sugar and cocoa, energy and packaging led to high single-digit price increases. Nevertheless, the industry managed to avoid overall volume losses as consumers generally switched to more affordable options within the category. Proc...
