Report description:

Carbonates in Austria witnessed only limited total volume growth in 2024, with a slight decline in sales of carbonates sold through off-trade channels. Falling consumption is widely in line with the evolution of health and wellness trends where more consumers are switching to alternatives that are perceived to be healthier. In Austria, consumers are seeking soft drinks with less or no sugar, lower calories, as well as non-carbonated offerings. RTD teas, flavoured or functional water and sports d...
