Report description:

Since the COVID-19 pandemic, coffee has largely reached a state of stagnation in South Korea. While there has been some recovery in foodservice volume sales as social activities have resumed, the retail channel has been struggling to achieve growth in volume terms. Despite this, there has been expansion in the base of coffee enthusiasts, leading to increased demand for fresh coffee beans. However, other categories within coffee continue to face difficulties. For instance, the once-popular fresh...
