Report description:

Concentrates is in an off-trade volume decline in France in 2024, while value looks fairly healthy - albeit skewed due to high prices. These high prices are mainly attributed to the soaring cost of sugar and imported fruits, with players passing on these cost increases to their end customers and being less active in price-based promotions. Ultimately, this means that concentrates are no longer perceived as an affordable soft drink, which used to be one of their strong selling points. Moreso, ano...
