Report description:

Growth in cooking ingredients and meals current value sales in North Macedonia in 2024 is expected to be substantially slower than that recorded the previous year. This is mainly because the recent spike in inflation fuelled by the global recovery from the pandemic and Russia's invasion of Ukraine is now steadily receding. The same trend has strengthened confidence and purchasing power among consumers, hence retail volume growth looks set to be up slightly on 2023. Retail volume sales have been...
