Report description:

Flexible plastic, the dominant pack type in India's home care market, was continuing to record unit volume growth in 2023. The presence of numerous small players in the marketplace is a significant contributory factor to this trend. As these small players are trying to compete with the larger, well-established brands, cost-effectiveness becomes a top priority for them. Despite its lack of sustainability, flexible plastic packaging is a cheaper option compared to other formats, making it a popula...
