Report description:

With the economy still spluttering, as the economy struggles to recover from the upheaval caused by the war in nearby Ukraine, staples in Estonia is expected to register moderate current value growth, but limited volume growth in 2024. On a positive note, inflation has eased significantly. However, the standard VAT rate increase from 20% to 22% is January 2024. As such, with consumer confidence still at a low level, players support volume sales by offering frequent promotions and discounts. Priv...
