Report description:

In 2024, black tea, the largest product area within tea in Denmark, experienced a decline in sales. This trend is largely attributed to the shift in consumption habits among younger Danish consumers, who are opting for alternatives such as ready-to-drink iced tea (RTD) and kombucha rather than traditional black tea. As younger generations continue to favour these modern beverages, the black tea category is seeing a reduction in demand, which is influencing the overall performance of the tea mark...
