Report description:

The "healthy pleasure" trend has gradually permeated the hot drinks industry in South Korea, leading some consumers to prefer tea over coffee. Despite this, the overall positive impact on the tea category remains somewhat limited, with retail volume sales set to decline in 2024, despite the anticipation of growth in foodservice. Tea, which is often associated with a warm and calming experience, struggles to compete with the bold flavours and refreshing cold options favoured by many, such as iced...
