Report description:

The decision of the United Arab Emirates government to remove the 30% municipality tax on alcoholic beverages at the start of 2023 marked a significant shift for alcoholic drinks packaging. This regulatory change made alcoholic drinks more affordable and accessible, especially for the non-Muslim expatriate community. The removal of the tax, coupled with the ongoing relaxation of certain alcohol-related regulations, spurred growth in both the retail and foodservice channels. The government's effo...
