Report description:

Retail sales of apparel and footwear in Spain registered a slowdown in growth in both volume and current value terms in 2024, with the high cost of living being the key factor behind this trend. With many households exposed to rising interest rates, given the high concentration of variable-rate mortgages, Spaniards saw a decline in their disposable incomes and exercised caution when it came to discretionary spending. At the same time, retailers were forced to raise their prices due to a general...
