Report description:

PET bottles continue to be the most popular pack type for laundry care products in Germany, and were also gaining share in this category in 2023, which is expected to continue over the forecast period. PET bottles are generally non-reactive and are compatible with a wide range of substances, including most chemicals used in laundry care products. They are also very convenient to use as they generally come with features like grips, handles and ergonomic designs. PET is an almost infinitely recycl...
