Report description:

Volume sales of juice are set to register relatively modest growth in the Philippines in 2024, with demand remaining below pre COVID-19 levels. Juice drinks, the largest product area, came under pressure during the pandemic, when the closure of schools throughout the Philippines eliminated numerous out-of-home consumption occasions. However, more recently, an increase in mobility has presented opportunities for retail and foodservice volume sales of juice, driven by a rise in snacking as individ...
