Report description:

Total meals and soups packaging volumes remained fairly static in the Netherlands in 2023. Dutch consumers are increasingly seeking fresh and healthier food options, with a growing emphasis on home-cooked meals and natural ingredients. This shift in dietary habits led to a lack of growth in demand for packaged meals and soups, which are often perceived as highly processed or less wholesome compared with fresh alternatives. Flexible plastic is the most used pack type for packaging meals and soups...

Euromonitor International's Meals and Soups Packaging in Netherlands report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.
