Report description:

Home cooking is popular among South African consumers, which was helping to drive growth in the use of dry recipe sauces in 2023. While flexible plastic remains the leading pack type in this category, and was also recording growth in its unit volumes in 2023, other plastic jars are increasingly favoured in dry recipe sauces. Other plastic jars were gaining share in this category over the review period, which is expected to continue in the coming years. They are valued for their ease of storage,...
