Report description:

The generation of plastic waste has been an important concern for players in the packaged food industry for a number of years now, with brand owners continuing to innovate their packaging to boost sustainability credentials and meet plans to reduce their environmental footprints in the coming years. One such initiative in 2023 came from prominent sauce player Kraft Heinz, which replaced non-recyclable silicone valves in its sauce bottle caps with its new Balaton monomaterial closure, which can b...
