Report description:

Despite ongoing inflationary pressures during the first half of the year, volume sales of soft drinks in the Philippines are poised for robust growth across both on-trade and off-trade channels in 2024. This positive outlook is largely driven by a resurgence in consumer mobility, which has supported spending in foodservice establishments as Filipinos return to their fast-paced routines and spend more time outside the home. As daily routines normalise, there has also been a notable increase in im...
