Report description:

Thin wall plastic containers are the dominant pack type used for chocolate spreads in Romania. The lightweight nature and durability of these containers make them an ideal choice for packaging chocolate spreads. Consumers appreciate the ease of opening, resealing and portability of these containers, which adds to their convenience. The use of thin wall plastic containers aligns with the global movement towards sustainable practices, as they are fully recyclable and can be reused multiple times.

Euromonitor International's Sweet Spreads Packaging in Romania report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category.
