Report description:

Breakfast cereals in North Macedonia is poised to record a modestly improved performance in retail volume growth terms in 2024. This is partly because confidence and purchasing power among consumers are increasing as the recent spike in inflation recedes, though the ensuing easing of pricing pressures means current value growth will be considerably lower than in 2023. Rising health-consciousness has also buoyed demand, as these types of products are widely perceived as a highly nutritious option...

Euromonitor International's Breakfast Cereals in North Macedonia report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2019-2023, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth.
