Report description:

Performance footwear remains one of the leading product areas in 2024, driven primarily by the strong demand for sports-related shoes. Football and running shoes have emerged as some of the fastest-growing categories, as these products appeal not only to athletes but also to a broader demographic. A significant trend shaping the market is the adoption of performance footwear for everyday use, with Czech consumers increasingly wearing these shoes to work or social events. This shift has been supp...
