Report description:

In the United Arab Emirates, the impact of a boycott on global brands by some consumers due to the Israel-Hamas war has been mixed within soft drinks. However, it has caused significant damage to sales of RTD coffee, which is dominated by global brands, with several recording notable declines that have impacted the category's overall performance.

Euromonitor International's RTD Coffee in United Arab Emirates report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
