Report description:

Footwear is in a negative slump in both value and volume terms in France in 2024, with volume declines steeper than seen in 2023, and value slumping into negative figures compared to the small growth seen last year. This is, in general, attributed to consumer price-sensitivity and the fact that good quality, robust footwear has a decent lifespan, thus does not necessarily need frequent repurchases. Added to which sustainability trends mean consumers are becoming more influenced to repair their a...
