Report description:

Retail current value sales of luxury goods in Romania will rise by 9% in 2024, set to reach sales of RON11.4 billion. The landscape is performing well despite the challenging economic situation in the country, with affluent consumers willing to invest in experiences, timeless pieces, and premium goods. Inbound tourism is also on the rise in 2024, positively impacting sales and attendance at luxury hotels. Premium in-store features and services further drive growth, including personal shopping, c...
