Report description:

Retail current value sales of designer apparel and footwear (ready-to-wear) is set to rise by 2% in 2024, reaching sales of RON1.3 billion. This performance is driven primarily by designer apparel (ready-to-wear), with women's apparel totalling RON573 million. Romania remains an important manufacturing hub for apparel products, with brands such as Prada, Gucci, Max Mara being manufactured locally. However, many of these products are actually sold in external markets, with Gucci and Prada not hav...
