Report description:

In 2023 and 2024, Brazil's macroeconomic scenario has been marked by a mix of positive and challenging factors. While the country has experienced robust economic growth, driven by a strong labour market and fiscal transfers, consumers and businesses have seen significant challenges from inflationary pressures and rising interest rates. In this context, many Brazilian consumers have adopted a more cautious approach to spending. They are prioritising essential goods and services, focusing on cost...
