Report description:

Although a wide variety of pack types are used to package products in sauces, dips and condiments in Sweden, glass jars continued to account for the highest share of packaging unit volumes in 2023. Glass jars was the dominant pack type in a number of important categories, such as pickled products, pasta sauces or herbs and spices. Glass is valued for the premium feel it lends to products, and is particularly relevant for herbs and spices, which are typically on display in household kitchens. Gla...
