Report description:

Apparel and footwear witnessed a mild recovery in retail volume sales over 2024, following two years of decline. The strong rebound in domestic and foreign tourism is driving the purchase of casualwear, sportswear, walking shoes, and travel-related supplies. The growing consumer preference for out-of-home leisure activities is also adding value in apparel and footwear, with a stronger need for functional and performance wear. Nonetheless, consumer confidence fell in 2024 amid concerns regarding...
