Report description:

In 2024, the Ukrainian coffee landscape showed signs of recovery after the significant sales drop in 2022, reflecting a complex interplay of several key factors. Despite economic uncertainty, leading coffee brands have invested in product innovation, marketing, and expanding their distribution channels. For local consumers, coffee is a core part of the everyday consumption basket, with many seeing it as an essential item that other beverages cannot easily substitute. An ongoing shift from out-of...
