Report description:

Consumer credit in Saudi Arabia is poised for substantial growth in 2024, with education loans seeing a particularly significant increase. While education loans currently represent a relatively small share of the overall lending market, they are projected to rise considerably due to several key factors. One major driver is the Kingdom's Vision 2030 initiative, which emphasises the importance of a highly educated and skilled workforce. The Vision aims to diversify Saudi Arabia's economy, and in d...
