Report description:

Similar to most other categories of major appliances, sales of dishwashers have been in decline in retail volume terms since 2022. However, this downward trend has begun to slow, with 2024 experiencing only a low single-digit decrease in both retail volume terms, while value growth was supported by a slight increases in unit prices. Built-in dishwashers faced a steeper decline in demand in 2024 compared to freestanding models, primarily due to the slowdown in the real estate and renovation marke...
