Report description:

In 2024, dishwashers in Turkey continued the strong upward trajectory in retail volume sales that characterised its review period performance. The positive demand trend continued as consumers made early purchases to avoid upcoming price increases. On the other hand, the slowdown in house sales towards the end of the review period limited growth, with 2023 and 2024 increases below the rates posted in the early-to-mid-review period.
