Report description:

In 2024, the most established hot drinks categories in Bosnia and Herzegovina, including coffee and tea, have demonstrated signs of maturity, resulting in limited growth in consumer demand and minimal off-trade retail volume increases. While inflation has begun to subside, price increments remain significant, leading to robust rsp value growth even as consumer demand cools. The on-trade sector has continued its recovery, with hot drinks sales reaching and, in some cases, surpassing pre-pandemic...
