Report description:

As the trend toward casual dressing continues to evolve in Romania, jeans have become a wardrobe staple for consumers of all ages. Consumers value versatile clothing that enables a seamless transition from work to social settings. Nevertheless, cocooning remains an important trend in the country, as some consumers prefer to stay at home, given the ongoing higher costs of living. In addition, there are still many Romanians who work from home, especially in the IT and business sectors. Furthermore...
