Report description:

The shift to back to office work boosted demand for professional menswear in 2023, especially suits and shirts. Although this trend was less pronounced in 2024, these categories remain staples in men's wardrobes, with many consumers seeking affordable yet stylish options. Male consumers are more likely to go for practical apparel solutions and favour having a small number of good quality items, rather than having a full wardrobe. Premium brands such as Tommy Hilfiger, Guess, Calvin Klein and Kar...
