Report description:

Retail volume sales of microwaves are expected to decline in the Czech Republic in 2024. The recovery of the real estate market is finally becoming a reality, with the demand for new housing units in Prague and other Czech cities increasing in the first half of 2024. The most attractive flats are sized from 20 to 39 square metres, which tend to be rented out more quickly and provide better investment value. The stabilisation of the overheated housing market brought a much-needed boost for proper...
