Report description:

Soft drinks in Ireland is creeping back into positive, albeit sub-decimal, off-trade volume growth in 2024, following the small negative slump seen in 2023. This is attributed to a slowdown in price increases and the start of stabilisation in inflation, which is also reflected in a slower rate of value growth seen in 2024 compared to 2023. That said, although we are seeing some positive movements, it is worthy to note that the prices of many products, along with manufacturing costs and raw ingre...
