Report description:

Brazil, the largest producer and exporter of sugar globally, reached a record high for the 2023/2024 season, with 713.2 million tonnes of sugarcane produced, which also led to a record in export volumes. The recovery of the international market and higher prices of the commodity when compared with 2022 left Brazil in a good position. Although placed as second in the ranking of global consumers, according to Esalq, consumption has been decreasing domestically, and total volume sales of sugars and...
