Report description:

In 2024, tea remained the second most popular hot drink in Sweden, although it is a distant runner-up to coffee in terms of overall sales. While coffee is the clear first choice for Swedes regarding hot beverages, tea's market share remains relatively small. In the off-trade, tea accounts for less than 10% of total volume, with its share in on-trade sales even lower-around half that of off-trade. Coffee is often described as a national drink in Sweden, a status not shared by tea. One of the key...
