Report description:

Despite Israeli consumers buying more caps, hats and headscarves, most were price-conscious and preferred to spend less on apparel accessories in 2024 to save money. There were fewer discounts in accessories than other categories, such as womenswear, and this also hindered sales of accessories as people ideally prefer to get a bargain. As elsewhere in the industry, independent retailers are starting to feel the pinch with many stores starting to close, largely to the benefit of retail chains. Hi...
