Report description:

In 2024, Brazil faced a series of economic challenges that introduced uncertainty into various industries, including apparel and footwear. Despite overall robust economic growth in the country, fiscal concerns persisted. In addition, global factors such as higher US interest rates and a stronger dollar heightened tensions in Brazilian financial markets, weakening the Brazilian real and driving up local interest rates.

Euromonitor International's Apparel and Footwear in Brazil report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2020-2024 and analysis by distribution format allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, leading brands, and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market. Forecasts to 2029 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Apparel, Footwear, Sportswear.
