Report description:

The macroeconomic scenario in Brazil in 2023 and 2024 has been marked by a mix of positive and challenging factors. While the country has experienced robust economic growth, inflationary pressures and rising interest rates have posed significant challenges for consumers and businesses. In this context, Brazilian consumers have adopted a more cautious approach to spending. This shift has led to a growing preference for value-oriented products and brands, with consumers actively seeking deals, dis...
