Report description:

The cannabis market in the Czech Republic is poised for significant changes in 2025, driven by evolving legislation and shifting economic and demographic factors. Recent developments indicate that the initial ambitious plans to establish a legal commercial market for cannabis may have been scaled back. Despite this, there is a growing consensus among experts that liberalising cannabis could significantly diminish the black market, which has reached saturation point in the country.

Euromonitor International's Cannabis in Czech Republic market report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of this emerging market opportunity at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (historic date range), allowing you to identify the key cannabinoid categories driving growth. It outlines the regulatory, cultural and commercial context and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - legislative developments both current and future, economic/lifestyle influences, illicit consumption, product innovation, distribution and pricing trends. Forecasts to 2029 illustrate how the market is set to expand and change.

Product coverage: Adult-Use Cannabis, CBD & Other Non-Intoxicating Cannabinoids, Medical Cannabis.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
