Report description:

Despite market maturity and saturation, carbonates continues to record moderate off-trade volume growth in 2024. Reduced-sugar products continue to gain ground, outperforming their regular counterparts, as consumers are more aware of the negative health effects of sugar and are seeking to lower their overall sugar intake. Following the outbreak of COVID-19, consumers have increased levels of health awareness, which has increased the focus of sugar content within food and drink. As well as shifti...
