Report description:

Consumer appliances in Ukraine continued to rebound from the sharp decline in retail volume sales in 2022, when the full-scale war began. Millions of people left the country or were displaced within Ukraine, the local currency witnessed devaluation and normal business processes were disrupted in most industries, including housing construction. This was important as many consumers purchase, especially major, appliances when they move into a new home. In a tough economic climate and amid high secu...
